

The Kingdoms of this World

Lance Wallnau

[Volume 1- Session 02]

1. Transition always precedes an invitation from God to join him in what he is about to do next.
2. To know what the angelic commissions and assignments are you have to be in the transition process.
3. Transition is technically when God initiates a change in your circumstance or your life of such a profound level that it is going to require a period of time for you to wrap your head and your heart around the new reality.
4. God's purpose of transition is to take you from one level of anointing to another level, so that you are qualified to stand in a position for the new assignment.
5. We need to consider being 'full of the Spirit' in context to transition.
6. Jesus was 'Full of the Spirit' before the devil tempted Him.
7. Notice in Jesus' temptations that they were always attacks on his identity.
8. It is good to have exuberance and confidence when tackling a new assignment but it is also essential to have experience of how to handle it when things go wrong.
9. Your battle from the beginning of transition and all the way through it is with the spirit of the enemy whom you are about to dispossess. The closer you get to break through the more intense the dialogue becomes over your identity.
10. We need to quote back to the devil what God says in His word especially who God says we are in Jesus. 'It is written' is the answer.
11. Whatever you were called to do is from God, not from you, so you tell the devil to go talk with God.
12. There is a multitude of dominions that form the Kingdom. 'Kingdoms' is plural.
13. The church is bigger than one mountain. It is meant to occupy all the spheres of culture.
14. The glory of God is hidden in the nations, because it is in His people: "Christ in you, the hope of glory".
15. When we fail to occupy the peaks we allow a counterfeit to operate with the gift God gave them empowered by an unclean spirit. When unsanctioned 'veiled' glory is revealed by people like Madonna in the arts mountain, there comes the power to shape culture in the wrong way.
16. Our assignment is to seize those high places with a company of believers whose job it is to unveil their glory in those mountains, because when they do, it releases the glory of God in those spheres that they are assigned over.
17. This is different thinking which we must get our head around because the old template will not serve the new reality and we will forfeit our ability to lead the church and a new generation.
18. The glory is: the honour, the wealth, the power, and the prestige. All these are variations of glory.
19. It is the 5% of mind-moulders at the top of the mountain that controls and manipulates culture in those mountains.
20. NOTE: Any time God gives you extraordinary favour to succeed in penetrating a mind-moulder there is always a favour backlash.
21. That is why you need a company with you when you go into the arena. You need to be prepared psychologically for the backlash, and if you respond correctly, it actually precedes God judging what is aligned against Him in that sphere. The backlash sets up the authority structure of the enemy for God's judgement, but if you cave into the backlash, the enemy has legal authority to sustain his position.

22. Glory is locked up in those mountains and it is always revealed by those at the top.
23. The strongholds determine who gets to the top of each mountain.
24. ◆ Whatever you bow to going up the mountain has control of you when you get to the top.
25. God is going to raise up an ‘Elijah’ type company at the top of everyone of these mountains to confront the ‘Baal’ who has a principality behind it.
26. The higher we go up each mountain the more attention we get from those spirits who are at the top.
27. The system always embodies it’s authority in people. God or the devil has to have a human being to co-operate with him to be his representative. They have to be in agreement.
28. ◆ The problem is the church has not agreed on its own commission! In contrast, a spirit empowered enemy remnant in the high places is shaping the course of nations. Therefore whoever controls the power at the high places has the power to legislate reality.
29. ‘Sphere sovereignty’: Simply means – God and the devil have to work within the limitations of authority. Eg in the family, the father has authority first, then the mother, and then the kids. The dad has authority within the context of working together and being equal with his wife.
30. Prayer assaults on mountains can only influence the atmosphere in that mountain, it cannot effect change by itself. That is why we must invade the mountain with a champion who has sphere authority to bring down the enemy at the top.
31. Prayer is critical as it deals with the terrain. It sets the atmosphere for change.
32. We need to think in terms of becoming shepherds of a city rather than that of a congregation. Then, if we link our shields in agreement we will have greater authority than any of us on our own.
33. So, we need to discern what God desires to do in a community rather than me and my church. This is called apostolic leadership.
34. A ‘cross functional person’: This is one who takes the kingdom from the church mountain to another mountain and ministers in that sphere. To do this though we must have back up by having a core group who operate in unity, because that is where survival is.
35. ◆ The person who knows what to do in a situation automatically has authority and the right to take command. Maximus said in the movie ‘Gladiator’ said, “As long as we work together, we will survive”.
36. Future sessions will cover: (i) how to know; (ii) how to identify God’s invitation to the next step; (iii) how to know what your role is in terms of your assignment; (iv) how to operate within the favour of that assignment; and (v) how to position yourself for the favour backlash.

Summary

- There are 7 kingdoms of this world that we are called to take possession of.
- We need to understand the transition process and how it positions ourselves for our next assignment.
- The opposing spirit will always attack our identity.
- We need to operate as a company of believers for the assignment God has given us.
- When we are given extraordinary favour, there will likely be favour backlash.
- The person who knows what to do in a situation automatically has authority.
